WHAT’S NEW FOR 2016...

As we start into our fourth decade of Chuckwagon Racing at the Bar o f Ranch, we still strive to come up with new, innovative and fun ideas for you while you’re here. Tuesday evening we are bringing back our “Battle of the Bands.” Five bands will compete for a prize and the opportunity to open for Randy Rogers Band on Thursday night. We expect this to fill up very quickly, so if you know someone who wants to enter, please have them call us soon! During the Wednesday Select Sale, Kelso Mules of Murray, Kentucky will be consign- ing 8-10 quality mules. This year’s Sunday preshow will consist of three different competitions. The first is a clover-leaf obstacle competition. This will be open to men and women, horses and mules, and will have some fun surprises in store for the participants. The second event is a 46” and under pony or mule race. This competition is open to children 10 and under (a parent must approve!) and the ponies or mules must be measured at the starting line before the race begins. Lastly, we will have a two horse, one man switch race on the big race track. These races are gaining popularity across the nation and we think our cowboys and cowgirls can ride with the best of them! We plan on taking the first 15 people who enter in each of these competitions, so be sure to get called in starting July 5th.

We are proud of our 2016 entertainment lineup. We will kick the week off right with a concert by Ricochet at the Bunkhouse. Wednesday night Lee Greenwood is performing, Thursday night will be Randy Rogers Band, Friday- Aaron Tippin, and we will close the week with the Tulsa Playboys on Saturday night. All of the weekly concerts will be up top on the Hotel stage. Enjoy a relaxing evening and plan on eating dinner with one of our many great food vendors open on top.

Trailers may also be set up around the track then - short trailers in front, taller ones behind. Someone must be in your camp by Tuesday, August 30 to guarantee your site. As always, some signs might not have made it through the winter.....please do not take someone else’s camp site. Also, please be courteous if someone happens to be in the wrong spot...we all make mistakes. The gates will open for new campers on Saturday, August 27. If you would like a private portapotty for your camp, send $120, along with a detailed description of where your camp site is by August 15 to the ranch. Make your check payable to Arkansas Portable Toilets. Campers on Southfork Camp Grounds should contact them directly for portapotties and other camping information. Please do your part to keep our ranch clean. We will have dumpsters throughout the ranch for your use. If everyone picks up after themselves, nobody has to pick up after anybody else!
